Employment First

What Employers LOVE to see in an Employee

Darian, a student at Project SEARCH was asked what makes a good employee. Darian stated that, “the employee should have a positive attitude, be a hard worker, be someone that enjoys their work and never gives up.”

Cristian, who is also a Project SEARCH student was asked what he feels a good employee should do. He said, “the employee should be on time and be at work every day. The employee should not be lazy and should take pride in their work.”
