Employment Services helps businesses find reliable workers and reduce their overhead expenses.

As a bridge between individuals and employers, Employment Services helps businesses to find reliable workers who have the skills necessary to fit your employment needs. We work with employers who are looking to hire dedicated employees who will be an asset to your team and often put a smile on your face. Our Vocational Specialists are available to spend additional time training new employees if needed after the initial training process.

Employment Services partners with area businesses to fulfill their staffing needs. We will support the job seeker through your company's hiring process, including orientation, and job training. Depending on your new employee's needs, we can provide additional on the job training and long-term supports. The services are individualized depending on the needs of the business and the new employee.
